

The white lion of Inkwenkwezi are fascinating: Here an adult male strides majestically through the thicket while over the page the cubs, females and sub adult male show their unusually beautiful colouring. The earliest recorded sighting of white lions is in the Timbavati region during 1938 although oral tradition points to their presence being far longer.