

There's a variety of styles and décor of rooms but all rooms have heating, TV and M-Net. Then there are the honeymoon suites one of which is in a lake cottage away from the hotel complete with jet bath.

Weddings and Conferences

Rawdons pride themselves on adding a warm personal touch to a couple's wedding. With an idyllic setting to add romantic charm, and beautiful backdrop for photographs, along with facilities makes it a sought after wedding venue. The dining room seats up to 100 people or hire a marquee draped in fairy lights for a larger reception, set up in the garden overlooking the lake. Rawdons can tailor make arrangements to suit your needs.

Rawdons has a conference room to seat 100, equipped with an overhead projector and a flat screen television. There's a host of activities offered to conferences from making and labelling your own beer, to cook offs, fly fishing, to artists setting up challenging games.

Antiques and Old World Charm

Rawdons has that charm of yonder year, with its prize antiques, and old paintings, wooden floors and cosy pubs, large dining room, shady verandas, and good old fashioned hearty food and friendly service. Rawdons offers good value for money and since, after one visit there you feel it's your own place, you will no doubt be back time and again. W
