

Knowledge can help you prevent a shark attack – Page 63

24 AERIAL SUPPORT

It's been said that in any warfare aerial support is necessary and when it comes to the war on poaching aerial support has proven to be effective. Read about this successful project that must continue.

26 HUNTING PERMITS IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Bogus or 'pseudo' hunting is a situation where legal hunting permits have been abused. Recent comments from government at the time of going to press encouragingly said that they were focusing on this.

32 YOGA BUSH BREAK

What could possibly be more relaxing than enjoying yoga outdoors? If you agree, then be sure to book your place soonest because places are limited.

34 KOSI BAY

Winter is not here yet and there is still enough sunshine to enjoy a break near the ocean.

46 MISS EARTH AT WOODLANDS

Miss Earth raises the profile of endangered species and visited Wooldands Lodge.

68 THE SHARK ROUTE

If you have a cool R115 000 and a full month of free time then you are in the game to experience Africa's most comprehensive shark diving adventure experience.

James Small, former Springbok rugby player, becomes a Wildside Warrior - pg 17